

Business English

THE WORLD OF WORK IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Business English Module

- ▶ The world of work, education and communication has become increasingly international and English is the lingua franca for many businesses today.
- ▶ How business is done is rapidly changing due to globalization and digitization.
- ▶ The Business English course is a module which will explore contemporary themes and skills related to the world of work and business in the 21st century.

Why should I take this course?

- ▶ You may be a business or economics student interested in the course themes.
- ▶ However, no previous knowledge of business or economics is required and the module is open to students of all faculties.
- ▶ You may want to train your professional English skills for future use in the workplace or studies abroad.
- ▶ You may have a personal interest in current affairs and business-related topics which impact on our society today.
- ▶ You enjoy lively debate on issues which matter and are interested in improving your oral and written communication skills.

What will we be doing in this course?

Course topics include:

- ▶ corporate culture
- ▶ training and development
- ▶ finance
- ▶ digital business
- ▶ performance
- ▶ ethics

What materials will we use?

- ▶ A new blended learning coursebook Business Partner B2 ISBN 978-1292233567 (Pearson), which contains authentic video and audio content and articles from the leading media organisations and news channels.
- ▶ It also provides oral and written professional skills training and problem-solving collaborative business workshops.
- ▶ We will be looking at real-life companies and also following an international team as they deal with different professional challenges.
- ▶ Business Partner also gives students access to MyEnglishLab, digital interactive resources for self-study at home.
- ▶ Students will receive a substantial discount on the course book price (details at the beginning of the course).

How often do classes take place?

- ▶ There will be weekly 90-minute classes on campus
- ▶ Class size is limited to a maximum of 12 participants

What SLP level must I have to join the course?

- ▶ You must have a current SLP of at least 3332 to begin the course.
- ▶ 4 Bachelor credit points are awarded to students who pass the course.

Who will be teaching the course?

- ▶ Your course teachers are Valerie Doyle who will be teaching 4 courses, and Sylke Schulte who will be teaching 2 courses.

How do I get my 4 Bachelor credit points?

- ▶ You must attend class regularly over three consecutive terms and do the assigned tasks (workload 120 hours).
- ▶ You must achieve at least a level 3 in oral and writing skills.
- ▶ The oral exam will be in the form of a 20-minute presentation and discussion on a business-related theme and will be held in June/start of July 2025.
- ▶ The written exam will be in the form of continuous assessment of a writing portfolio focusing on professional writing tasks such as business reports and proposals.

What happens if I fail the exams?

- ▶ You have two more tries to pass the exams
- ▶ If you fail the portfolio writing assessment, you will have 2 more tries in the form of an on-site 60-minute writing exam.

How do I join the course?
