What is it?

- ✓ This modular English course is a four-week online intensive course in summer.
- ✓ Each week, 5 to 8 tasks are set via ILIAS and dealt with individually, in small groups or as a whole group via ILIAS, Microsoft Teams or email.
- ✓ There are synchronous (e.g. video conference) as well as asynchronous (e.g. forum contribution) tasks and a lot of interactive activities.

Who is it for?

- ✓ Civil, Electrical, Industrial and Mechanical Engineering students;
- ✓ Students from other faculties with an interest in technical matters;
- ✓ Scientific or other staff with sound intermediate English skills.

What do you get out of it?

- ✓ Vocabulary, grammar and functions often used in technical contexts;
- ✓ Interesting tasks and topics for the technically-minded;
- ✓ 4 credit points and a Certificate of Participation.

What do I have to do for the four ECTS?

- ✓ Participate actively for the duration of the course;
- ✓ Give a minimum of two presentations and keep a writing portfolio;
- ✓ Pass EMO-M (speaking) and EMO-S (writing) at SLP level 3 or 4.
